Galatians 1:1-9

Greeting

verses 1-2

“Paul, an apostle—”

Men who serve as elders and pastors today are still called by God. At least they are supposed to be. But they are appointed by men, by other elders and pastors.

This is the only letter Paul wrote to a church where he does not follow the greeting with thanksgiving...

Gospel

verses 3-5

The gospel tells us
who we are.

The gospel tells us
what Jesus did.

The gospel tells us
what the Father did.

Rebuke

verses 6-9

“There is no middle-ground between Christian righteousness and works-righteousness. If you do not build your confidence on the work of Christ, you must build your confidence on your own work.”

-Martin Luther

We were too sinful to contribute anything to our own salvation. We were dead in our trespasses and sins.

Some believe that it really doesn't matter what you believe or who you believe in, as long as you are trying your best to be a good and loving person.

“Morality may keep you out of jail, but it cannot keep you out of hell.”

-David Platt/Tony Merida on Galatians

The message of the Gospel preached in many churches today is “Jesus + Works”

There is no other gospel. No other hope.
No other foundation upon which we may stand.
